Crystal Massey, Asylum Seeker Accompanist

with Mexican Asylee

Bianey Reyes

THE BRIDGE:

from violence to revictimization

On the Juarez side of the international bridge ex- Buffalonian Crystal Massey meets those fleeing for their lives from uncontrolled violence in Mexico. As she walks them towards a less than receptive encounter with U.S. immigration she prepares them for what is coming, including 24 hours of isolation. And she is there for them when that is over, to help find housing and legal aid.

Crystal has lived in and loves Mexico. She works for the Southwest Asylum & Migration Institute in El Paso, Texas and Las Cruces, New Mexico. She will be accompanied by Bianey Reyes who fled from Mexico after seven members of her family were slain. The family is known throughout Mexico for its humanitarian and environmental work.
